One look in the mirror, I can tell that something's wrong
The face I'm looking at, is a face I've never known.
With the world upon my shoulder, I just cry, baby, cry.
I like to know the fool, put the good in goodbye.

Still there is no secret how love can hurt you so Maybe that is why they but a hell in hello Cuz since i met you baby, just feel like I could die So I like to know what fool, who put the good in goodbye.

Cuz good is not the way I feel since you spelled out the word Loneliness is killing me and my question goes unheard Guess you wish to be aware that I just feel like I could die
So I like to know what fool, put the good in goodbye

Guess you wish to be aware that I just feel like I could
so I like to know what fool, put the good in goodbye

word
Loneliness is killing me and my question goes
unheard
Guess you wish to be aware that i just can not see how
So I like to know what fool, put the good in goodbye

Yeah I like to know what fool, put the good in goodbye
