I'll travel the whole night through to be near you, to be near you.

A part of me is wanting more than I could dream of, I could dream of

Now that a part of me believes it's coming true.
And I miss you.

I'm gonna see you again

I'm gonna see you again

I'm gonna surprise myself like I've never seen your face.

I'm still traveling across what feels like yesterday, like yesterday

to find out that tomorrow feels like home, like home, like home

I'm gonna see you again

I'm gonna see you again

I'm gonna surprise myself like I've never seen your face.

And I miss you terribly, too
