

Evan Anthem, The "Dans Ce Moment"

A light shined on me when the sun, the sun was hidden beneath the sky from where you were standing, reminding me

Our times together made our lives much better
And in this moment, we found out all of this.

You carried us so far we didn't recognize it all 'til you were gone.
And in this moment we realize the ones who've meant the most to us this far.
The memories live on as I, as I go through this.
And you live on in all of us, reminding us

Our times together made our lives much better
And in this moment, we found out all of this.
Our times together made us all the better
And in this moment, we found out all of this.

Once again you've opened my eyes
the bigger pictures lies we know it's true.
Be true you've always said we know how things can change in the blink of an eye.
