"I can show you how it goes
How it goes it how you make it
Does it go how you would like it?
Does it go how you do make it?
And I know things could be so much better
Yet why don't we just give everything up?

What are your questions? I know you have them

Who's to say I am the same?
The same I've been these years before
I knew you, I knew you
Please don't tell me you're not perfect
Yeah I know that no one is Why have we let it get this way?
Why have we let it go this far?
Lets give it all up and live

Who's to say I am the same?
The same I've been these years before
I knew you, I knew you
I'm maybe someone you've never met
From across oceans changed over night
I don't think so, I don't think so

Another long drawn out year
And I see now why the things that were said make all the sense in the world
Can you see the light above your head lightning the room so you can see the faces of everyone?"
