Every time you're near
I can feel my cheeks start to burn
I'm always stealin' glances
Hopin' I get one in return
Every time you rush by
My heart stops cold
Whatever you're sellin'
Babe I'm already sold
And I know

[Chorus]
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
Going on

I read the daily specials
Twenty-one times a week
When you take my order
My tongue gets tied, and I can hardly speak
When you wipe my table
And you bring me the bill
You write that little happy face
It gives me a chill
And I know

[Chorus]
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
Going on

[Bridge]
You're like a bolt of lightnin', you've made a blind man see
You're like sunshine in the mornin', that came without a warning...

We can blow this burger joint
And find a little place in the sun
There's gas in my old pick-up

Enough to get us west of San Anton'
Your t-shirt says
You don't like guys in boots & hats
A few miles with me babe
And you'll forget all that
'Cause I know...

[Chorus]
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
We got a little somethin'
Going on

We got a little somethin' goin' on
We got a little somethin'... goin'... on
