When you say you'll love me,
I'll do all that I can,
To take you, make you, love me,
And to be your loving man.
It's easy to say I love you,
When you're saying, you'll love me.
You'll be the one I want,
You'll be the one I need.
But I'm telling you, and I'm warning,
Don't be fooled by me.
'Cause it's easy to say I love you,
When you're saying, you'll love me.
(Chorus)
Never say you'll love me,
And you'll be all right.
'Cause if you say you love me,
For your heart you'll have a fight.
(You're bound to lose the fight.)
Never say "I Love You,"
And listen closely to this song.
Never say "I Love You,"
'Cause I won't be yours for long.
If I could be your lover,
If I could be your man.
I'd mend our hearts together,
Throw(ing) away any other fan.
My twisted line of logic,
Always comes into play.
(Always gets in the way.)
If my charm had not deceived you,
You would have run away.
It's easy to say I Love You,
When you're saying, you'll love me.
You can try to tame my spirit,
By setting my dreams free.
But never say you'll love me,
And I won't tear you apart.
But if you can't resist it,
I'll take and keep your heart.
(Chorus)
Never say you'll love me,

And you'll be all right.
'Cause if you say you love me,
For your heart you'll have a fight.
(You're bound to lose the fight.)
One more little warning,
For you to prepare.
'Cause when you say you'll love me,
I will give and I will care.
We'll have some special times,
We'll have some memories.
But then I'll be moving on,
Trying to set my spirit free.
It's easy to say I love you,
It's harder to say good-bye.
But that's what I'll be doing,
Trying not to look you in the eye.
It won't be what you did,
It won't be what you said.
I just have to keep on moving,
I just have to keep ahead.
(Chorus)
Never say you'll love me,
And you'll be all right.
'Cause if you say you love me,
For your heart you'll have a fight.
(You're bound to lose the fight.)
There's nothing you can do.
And I have but few regrets.
And time keeps on ticking,
But honey don't you fret.
'Cause I'll find another,
Never meaning to hurt their heart.
And that I'll always miss you,
Knowing I tore you apart.
I warned from the beginning,
Don't be fooled by me.
Never say I love you,
'Cause I'm as free as can be.
(Chorus)
So, Never say you'll love me,
And you'll be all right.
'Cause if you say you love me,
For your heart you'll have a fight.
(You're bound to lose the fight.)
Never say "I Love You,"
And listen closely to this song.
Never say "I Love You,"
'Cause I won't be yours for long.
