I feel the pain in my heart
And we should probably never start
A broken wing was your gain
Now sing it over and over again
"I wanna love like this" she said
"I wanna love like this" she said
She said the break was my fault
And you can bury my wounds in salt
I'll stop the world to begin
Now sing it over and over again

And if you care for me
I can promise my heart wouldn't bleed
I guess I never knew

We couldn't wait to begin
Pick you up, fall apart, was the plan
And now the coast is too far
And you are only a burning star

And if you care for me
I can promise my heart wouldn't bleed
I guess I never knew
So give up on me
I was aching to breathe while we
Were falling asleep
I guess I never knew
You weren't really there when we
Were falling asleep
It was another dream that I was living
In make-believe
In a rented car that you had borrowed from me
On the road, on a wire, I guess this never gets easy

"I wanna love like this" she said
(we could start right now)
"I wanna love like this" she said
(I could show you how)
"I wanna love like this" she said
(we could start right now)
It's too late to wait and see

It's too late to wait for me

And if you care for me
I can promise my heart wouldn't bleed
I guess I never knew
So just give up on me
I was aching to breathe while we
Were falling asleep
I guess I never knew
