"Lie"

I wish that you could forget how to lie just tell the truth, be honest. You want me tonight Sometimes I wish that I could forget how you lie
To tell the truth, I've never been good with good-bye

And you finally get your way
In the cold I made mistakes

Sometimes I wish that I could forget how to lie (Pretend you're listening)
This wasn't priceless, we exist to die
(All right)
And you tell me that you miss me,
Half kiss me good night.
(Does this mean anything?)
But when you want it, I forget to lie

Feel sick about the future, it's a great big lie that will get you there
I've tried to touch the stars, but you're still too far to care
So please come back down

And did you know that your eyes were the perfect excuse?
(Come back down, come back down, come back down from your dreaming)
Sometimes I wish my lips could forget to refuse you

And you finally get your way
I'll admit I made mistakes
Just like a heartache, we both beg to lose

Feel sick about the future, it's a great big lie that will
get you there
I've tried to touch the stars, but you're still too far to
care
So please come back down
Forget your pride and come back down

Can you come down? Forget everything

You won't come down, you'll let this slip away

And you finally get your way, I'll admit I made mistakes

Please come back down
