"The Way You Hate Me"

I miss you so much, I miss your touch
And the way you hate me
And the calloused skin is wearing thin
And now I can't breathe
After all I've said you should understand
After all I've said you should understand
It's the wait that kills me

And this whole town becomes your street
When you start looking at me looking at me
I wanted out but you'll start looking at me
Looking at me

I miss every fight on a Sunday night
And that way you hurt me (make me bleed)
And the final pin is sinking in
And now I can't leave
After all I've said you should understand
After all I've said you should understand
You should just not see me

You wear me down you make me weak
When you start looking at mt looking at me
I wanted out but you'll start looking at me
Looking at me

I sink like an anchor
You move like the summer
Too fast to ever see
The leaves were once the bed we sleep
(the reason, for leaving, was perfect, was taken)
I sink like an anchor
You move like the winter
Too cold to ever see
The leaves were once the bed we sleep
