Step back cause the bass is fuzzin'
Bloodhound Gang bangs more than the dirty dozen Alley oop here comes the slam i know where I stand
I'm feelin' like Anthrax cause you know O'm the man Yea I dug your dame but all I did was kiss her
But I got to second base with your mom and your sister
I'll wipe the grin off your face like I was a can of Windex
I threw a right I threw a right was I live or Memorex
Go down down deep deep in and out quick
Cause I'm harder than Chinese arithmetic
Now my fist is in your face cause you stood in my way
You tried to talk your shit and your ass got paid
I get stupid like the mongoloid Corky
Welcome to McDonald's may I take your order
Cause I'm cold kicken' lyrics like my arm was on fire
Like Pinnochio my nose don't grow cause I ain't no liar
Go down go down to get it up get it up
Go down go down to get it up y'all
Clap it on clap it off sniff my exhaust
Cause i got more steps than Barishnikov
Like a pirouette, a pirouette, a pair of wet jeans

You don't understand but your girl knows what I mean

So I kicks my lines kind of complex

A text of intricate words and other spoken effects

Like a preacher on the mount teaching things he doesn't follow

When you tried to hit the brake but pushed on the throttle

Mr. Goody Two Shoes picture the scenario

Your girl blew me as I blew your stereo

And I gots more bass than a baseball diamond

Don't put me on your chalkboard cause I'm not down with Simon

Sonic boom in your room assume you're not there

Booty lickin' nugget picken' with your dad downstairs

Love is just a fallacy I got more force than gravity

I can run all night like an Energizer battery

Go down go down to get it up get it up

Go down go down to get it up y'all
