Better but not for long
Awake not far away
There's a mission Bell that rings me near

Recognize this is worth the fight
Hello deciever

Take your hands off me
Take your hands off me

There's a crackling wind that turns my eyes to gray
And breathing in, it taste metallic

Close Your Eyes
Watch as water turns to wine
no more believing

Take your hands off me
Take your hands off me

Step aside as these these oceans boil and rise
No more believing

Take your hands off me
Take your hands off me

Step aside as these these oceans boil and rise
No more believing

Take your hands off me
Take your hands off me
