[Bigg Jus]

I swing boomerangs and murder air attacks Blow out busted internet, access info out your back Clip cut you off, I'm too advanced for your little cause Pole position, my verbal contact no life support We'll maintain position, lift off to ignition Frequency feedback provide ammunition
The brain cells panic sell two tons of the IQ When the energy starts to fornicate, that's when I punch through
All type hard rock tracks that's hard to the max
It's spacey like mixing up angel dust and crack Yo wait a God damned pagan minute, then pause on that My styles the man like the Ku Klux Klan be from deep down south
Don't let one of these little emcees get lost on the wrong route
Catch a Mississippi Burning fuck that then catch an arson
Land mines, destruction, Far Rockaway to Carson
You couldn't locate my synthy format using LoJack Bitch I'm all that Scratch the bed numbers straight off your girls' back
In fact black the injection of my lethal status
Will ultimately break all beats down into antimatter
You couldn't hang if you was bit by a radioactive spider I'm intrigued, your lackluster broken charted style
Is unkempt and wild causing mayhem
The battle rhymer mixed with tonic and El-P is fucking lethal
Like a African disease killer people
And it's true I'm messing with your whole crew till you're bogling
Cause your style is now off with a blast of the force

It's the classic underground styles of the urban masters
The Krazy Kings these thinking caps be sparking tags
quick x4

It's been rated combustible
Computer animated T2
Winds up enzyme fractal poly-residue
When taking away what little time that I got The mind view in energy oxen I pick the combination spot
When in 1985 they injected me with props Ten years of misdirected blacks killing, I'm back on the block Recuperating from the never-ending bloodshed of the war
Though my pockets remain empty, my soul remains pure
Retained it exists laid a whole education
For the new rebirth of a super space station Practicing the science of shooting the planets from a distance
While escaping without conscience of existence
Or would be laws no matter how much I resistance From somewhere wicked in the West this way comes
It seems that we underestimated Satan once again
Time marches on but some and then some blends
Into the recess of all starving no content
All for the form of better communication
I bet you wish you could eliminate the whole lower class population
I be the fund raiser for my own expedition
A pro-black family mind reconditioning
For the multi-colored Pumas are no longer the flavor Unless you're one of those techno transient jungle ravers

It's the classic underground styles of the urban
masters
The Krazy Kings be thinking caps and sparking tags
quick x4

I strike a match for you two dollar MC's that can't burn
This is for your own concern
I burn images in retinas for all you bitches faking You couldn't download my multi-disk without penetrating
Complex quotes set to explode off of impact
But it sees to that disco boogie mayhem dance track Lookie bitch at poetry that's on track like a bookie
More heads be jocking my shit than a droptop at dookie Peep this, put together the form into pieces
That form the eight steps for your mind increases
Another ass whipping slashing my burn to pieces
It's mad bogus, I'm fading in and out of focus

Cock shoot cops tax me, I'm taxing you My gunshots scream nerve wracking, heads is pushing through Intensity, I booby-trap all known vicinities Leave you stinking like face guts in a dumpster in Little Italy

It's the classic underground styles of the urban
masters
The Krazy Kings be thinking caps and sparking tags
quick x8
