Hey hey hey hey hey hey!

Come on, tell me that you're better
And you rather just forget that
Things have gone so far
Yeah, tell me that you're better
And you rather just forget that
Things have gone too far

You're all I see, "sink into me"
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me
Sink into me (sink in, sink in)

I'd like to see our roles reversed
To watch you hang on every word
I'd like to see you have your way
I keep my grammar well rehearsed
Correct each stutter, every slur
Come on and have your way with me

Now tell me that you're better
And you rather just forget that
Things have gone so far
You tell me that you're better
And you rather just forget that
Things have gone too far

Hey hey hey hey hey hey!
Hey hey hey hey hey hey!

You're all I see, sink into me
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me

(Sink into me)
Sink in, sink in
Well, I'd like to see our roles reversed
To watch you hang on every word
I'd like to see you have your way
I keep my grammar well rehearsed
Correct each stutter, every slur
Come on and have your way with me
Come on and have your way with me

I'd like to be a note the kind
You could sing but don't because you're shy
That way I'll live inside your throat
And aim for every word you spoke
Heeeey!

Hey hey hey hey hey hey!
Hey hey hey hey hey hey!

You're all I see, sink into me
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me
(Sink into me)
Sink in, sink in
I'd like to see you have your way
Come on, have your way with me
(Aim for every word you spoke)
I'd like to see you have your way
(Correct each stutter, every slur)
Come on, have your way with me
(Sink into me)
