Well I can't regret..
Can't you just forget it
I started somethin i couldnt finish
And if we go down, we go down together
Best friends means..Well best friends means
I've got a 20 dollar bill that says
You're up late at night starting fist fights
Vs the fences in your backyard
Wearing your black eye like a badge of honor,
Soaking in sympathy,
From friends who never loved you
Nearly half as much as me

Chorus
Broken down in bars and bathrooms
All I did was what I had to
Don't believe me when I tell you..
Its just what anyone would do
Take the time to talk about
Think and learn and live without it
Don't believe me when i tell you
Its something unforgivable

Well I can't regret...
Cant you just forget it
I started something i couldnt finish
And if we go down, we go down together
Best friends means, well best friends means..
And you never knew
Well i never told you...
Everything I know about breakin hearts
I learned from you, it's true
I've never done it with the style and grace you have
But ive made long term plans
Based on these mistakes

Chorus

Is this what you call tact?
I swear your about as subtle as a brick
In the small of my back
So lets end this call,and end this conversation

There's nothing worse, I swear you have no idea
The jealousy that became me thinking...
You always had it way too easy

That's right, he said it
That's right, he said it

chorus
