Marching Band
By Evil Wiener (Billy Sugarfix)

You called me up and spoiled my birthday
'cause you just couldn't wait to tell me things were finished and you seem kind of cruel sometimes and that makes sense because you are pretty cruel sometimes you're a cat and the world's a nip filled ball and I'm just a mouse beneath your paws

Chorus:

You're an hour glass and I'm a minute hand You're a sky scraper and I'm plaster and sand You're the football team and I'm the marching band
You're the football team and I'm the marching band

I thought the listerine was liquor I took a giant drink and threw up while you paid twelve cents a minute and I seem kind of stupid sometimes but every body that I know can be stupid at times except for you it seems to be the only bad choice you ever made was me

Repeat Chorus x2
