VERSE 1

its not safe to be where this all once began the tides will turn and it will begin again

CHORUS 1

the beast is lurching toward bethelehem all around a brand new babylon this top cant ever stop spinning the center will not hold

if you try any harder they will break you on the shore there is no quenching the hunger the empty hole thats always craving more

the beast is lurching toward bethelehem

this top can't stop spinning

the center will not hold.
