No longer the same train it's reelin' on a different track
No longer the same mistakes and no more looking back

The station you're headin' for is not the place for me I couldn't see the barriers while I was standing in between

Finally no longer the man I used to be

No longer the same ship we were sailing on a different sea

No other apparent reason to go down on my knees
We were runnin' way too fast, but now it's runnin' off the rails.

I couldn't see the exit not before the moment we were bound to fail

Finally no longer the same shit

No longer the same train without you, without you

No longer the fool for you, no puppet on a satin string No more excuses for nothing, no more words that I don't mean

We were plantin' the same tree but we had different leaves,
now the soil is dry

Let's end up this story for another one to begin

Finally
