Sound the alarm. It's an emergency.
You're waving your arms. Are you deserting me?
Evidence has shown we've seen this all before.
Your cover's been blown, and we expected
So much more.

Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
We've got a situation.

Mistaking paradise for a pair of long legs.
It's not so much advice but the question that it begs.
What did you expect? We're calling your bluff,
And we're taking what's left. And that's not saying much,
Not saying much.

Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
We've got a situation.

Sound the alarm. It's an emergency.
You're waving your arms. Are you deserting me?
Evidence has shown we've seen this all before.
Your cover's been blown, and we expected
So much more.

Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
Talk slowly. Take notice.
It's over, a forgotten situation.
