I should of turned back I should of known better
Then to walk away defeated
I'll say it tonight ill say it forever
And this time I really swear I mean it

Oh, I need you now, the earth fell fast asleep
This room is safe and sound
Will you lay here with me and feel it?

I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around

True love is something that comes easy
Just one kiss id swear I want to
I hear a pen drop and a nervous heartbeat
Have you ever heard me scream I love you?

Oh, I need you now, the earth fell fast asleep
This room is safe and sound
Will you lay here with me and feel it?

I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around
I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around

Da da da
Da da da
Da da da

I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around
I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around

I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around
I think I like today, I think it's good
It's something I can't get my head around
