You're a liar
You wear a gun, makes you look bigger
You scare the crowd, don't you feel smarter?
Like a little kid, you play with fire
You do your part, you do it all

But those words from your mouth, they are scary
And the hate that you have that you carry
It will grow and will grow 'til we're buried

You're so clever
If this is war, it's like no other
If there is blame, it's on each other
I hear the cries, they last forever
We did our part, we came along

But those words from your mouth, they are scary
And the hate that you have that you carry
It will grow and will grow 'til we're buried
And there will be nothing left except sadness
And a scar without words, without anything
'Cause we've done this before, this is madness

I can't tell you how relieved I am to have you here
Your the last one, it's all gone
That's the thing connection is perhaps the most cherished thing any humanbeing can have
I understand how you must feel

I am sorry
But those words from your mouth, they are scary
And the hate that you have that you carry
It will grow and will grow 'til we're buried
And there will be nothing left except sadness
And a scar without words, without anything
'Cause we've done this before, this is madness
This is wrong, this is us, this is happening
But we've done this before, but we're standing
We're still standing

And we've done this before, but we're standing

We're still standing

And we've done this before, but we're standing

You've got to remember the good things

And cherish the memories

And go on with life because it don't stop

You only have to remember that

What you've done in your life

May change what someone's doing in their life

And it changes everything

So amazing

Love
