My mouth is an ashtray
My legs are dust
The school's full of depression
Don't you feed me any longer
Eyes like sponges
And ears like paper, hurts sometimes
I try to jump but everyone is stronger
Naked giants, free somethings
Chocolate corners, sleepless friends
Lovely carpets, stupid nothings
Sentence, sentence, means to an end
Some songs about October
And some songs about Spring
You know I hate how obvious I've been
I've got some long-sleeve (furs??)
That don't fit me anymore
And I know, I always only see the outer core
Naked giants, free somethings
Chocolate corners, sleepless friends
Lovely carpets, stupid nothings
Sentence, sentence, means to an end
Naked giants, free somethings
Chocolate corners, sleepless friends
Lovely carpets, stupid nothings
Sentence, sentence, means to an end
Naked giants, free somethings
Chocolate corners, sleepless friends
Lovely carpets, stupid nothings
Sentence, sentence, means to an end
