All I think is about you, baby
All I do is for only you and it's true
With every heartbeat, I see your face
Oh yeah
Every night when I lay down, baby
Close my eyes and imagine I'm kissing you
Before I fall to sleep, I always pray

That in your eyes
You see what I see
And in your heart
You feel what I feel, too

I wish me you
I know you're the one but I'm holding on to
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky will know that I wish me you

I catch my breath when I see you, baby
I get weak when someone calls out your name
Can't wait any longer to let you know

That in my eyes
I see what you see
And in my heart
I feel what you feel, too

I wish me you (wish me you)
I know you're the one but I'm holding on to
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky will know that I wish me you

Baby, I always believe
If you want something bad enough
When it find it's way to you
When you do it for love, love...

I wish me you
I know you're the one But I'm holding on to
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky will know that I wish me you

I wish me you
I know you're the one but I'm holding on to
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky will know that I wish me you

I wish me you
I know you're the one but I'm holding on to
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky will know that I wish me you, baby

Wish me you... but I'm holding on till
My dream comes true
Every star in the sky...
