Another sad game of who's fuckin' who.
Who's getting fucked and who's doing the screw.
What was once thought dead was brought back and made real
All eyes crossed and lips sealed.

So this is living this is life.
It's a battle tank world against my pocketknife.
Been twenty years and i just can't get it right.
I'd like to know tell me who said so.

That smile on your face you've always been rehearsing.
Feelings fucking change and backs are always turning.
Trust is hard to say watching friends turn enemies.
Whatever this was worth was left in the dirt.

So this is living this is life.
It's a battle tank world against my pocketknife.
Been twenty years and i just can't get it right.
I'd like to know tell me who said so.

So this is living this is life.
It's a battle tank world against my pocketknife.
Been twenty years and i just can't get it right.
I'd like to know tell me who said so.
I'd like to know tell me who said so.
I'd like to know tell me who said so.
