Coughing up on swallowed pride.
Tell me secrets tell me lies.
Count your blessings lose your charm.
Break the pattern twist my arm.
Going, going and it's gone.

Music in my ears on the outbound line.
A song for every year that i wasted time.
Music in my ears on the outbound line.
Feeling it tonight, and i'm feeling it tonight.

No direction getting lost.
No connection fading fast.

Music in my ears on the outbound line.
A song for every year that i wasted time.
Music in my ears on the outbound line.
Feeling it tonight, and i'm feeling it tonight.

There must be something to be said.
But those words are falling dead
and my ears are ringing true again.

Music in my ears on the outbound line.
A song for every year that i wasted time.
Music in my ears on the outbound line
Feeling it tonight, and i'm feeling it tonight.
