It all started at the break of dawn,
Everyone knew something was wrong,
City filled with chaos and disarray,
Military spy they would say,

The door opens wide,
Someone steps out from inside.
No one knows where he's been,
He's not your typical alien.
Leather jacket full of pins,
Converse shoes and a grin,
He said, "Step inside and I'll take you for a wild ride"

Yeah yeah yeah yeah-
Now you're one of them

Then it drew closer it drew near,
As it took its course along the stratosphere.
Dark clouds looming way up high,
They said there's an object in the sky.

Yeah yeah yeah yeah-
Now you're one of them

We went up high rockin' in outer space,
Defying the laws of time and space.
Ship is rockin' they're going insane,
Punk Rock Planet, Punk Rock Planet.

Yeah yeah yeah yeah-
Now you're one of them
