Today, I woke up at 9 with so much on my mind
So much to say, there was not enough time
You're cute and you're swell
And everyone can tell
That I've fallen head over heels over you

And they all get tired when I sit and talk about you
They say that they've heard it all, you're the one I should tell
So I'll write it and seal it with a kiss, just for you

Chorus
Seal it with a kiss just for you

It's hard to know where to start
I want to open my heart
Not knowing what my words may impart
You're the guy I adore
And I just can't ignore
That each day I like you
More than the day before
Rewrite and revise it
There's no way to deny it
And hope this message comes through
That I'm crazy about you
So I'll write it
And seal it with a kiss, just for you

Chorus

So I'll rewrite it and revise it
There's no way to deny it
As I bring this letter to a close
With Love, xoxo
And I'll sign it
And seal it with a kiss, just for you

Chorus
