He wanted to live the life of an undercover spy,
New faces, dangerous places and suspicious eyes,
He's gonna take his girl to the classy part of town,
Top down in his MG car,
He's the big man in the town.

Deny any involvement,
Because they're closing in on you,
Sneaking out,
Incognito is the one thing you can do.

He was a witness to some business,
Going on downtown on the other side,
He's catching bad guys and dodging drive-bys,
Just another day in the life of a secret spy.

Across the corner you might see him there,
Looking very casual but he's dressed to kill,
Danger surrounds him but he'll survive,
Wing-tips, white shirt and his lucky black tie.
