"You Lose"

You want to be like them
You want to be their friend
But you lost
Because you can't win with them
You can't win with them
But you're
Following along on the assembly line
You're either stupid or you're really blind
Cuz you lost

You think that they're the shit
You think that they're the shit
But you lost
But they're just full of it
They're just full of it

But they pretend to like you
But inside they laugh at you
It's so pathetic, but it's really nothing new
But you lost

And you thought you were cool - but you lost
You were played like a fool - it's your loss
And the joke is on you - cuz you lost

You're getting desperate now
You're getting desperate now
But you lost
There is no one else around
There is no one else around
But you're
You're too afraid to think on your own
You'd rather conform than have a mind of your own

And you thought you were cool - but you lost
You were played like a fool - it's your loss
And now they're laughing at you - cuz you lost
