(Mark Hollis / Simon Brenner / Paul Webb / Lee Harris)

Hate

Relax your stare

It's laughing in my face

My foes beware

I'm tired of losing grace

The child's not there

The priest is losing faith

Defile my care

And stumble to the flames

People crying

P

Eople crying

People crying

People crying

My confusion

My confusion

Are there illusions?

There illusions?

Hate

The dice won't lose

They've everything to gain

Devout prepare

The stones along my grave

People crying

People crying

People crying

People crying

My confusion

My confusion

Are there illusions?

There illusions?

Hate

Don't say a word if I've been away too long

I found out it's wrong

I found out I don't need hate

I don't need hate
