Don't look back until you try
A line so openly a lie
Outside of you

I've said I'm wrong when I've been right
I've seen times when I've been sure
But still I find I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?
They never seem to be any use

They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting

Don't look back until you've tried
With time you'll endlessly arrive
Outside of use
It's just tomorrow starting
See my eyes
Tell me I'm not lying
I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?

They never seem to be any use

They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting

See my eye
Tell me I'm not lying
I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?

They never seem to be any use

They never seem to be any use

They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting
