Slightly on the wild side
Your eyes betray the pain you feel
And you'd never be suspected
But you keep all the souls you steal

And your victims, once infected
Like vampires, roam the town
Slightly on the wild side
When the sun is sinking down

Can you dream a little bit louder
Well I can feel something, but I'm not sure
Can you call out a little bit louder
Well I'm tasting blood and I want more

Am I just, am I just a chemical reaction
That is set to last a hundred years
And what gives me a sense of right or wrong
And what stops me controlling my hopes and fears

No I just can't seem to see the big picture
I don't feel I'm being guided day to day today
There must be a simple explanation
Magnetic field or maybe radio waves

You're irresistible, irresistible temptation
Something ancient from the other side
Unnatural selection
A perfect mouth slightly on the wild side

Stretch your arms out a little bit further
I'm sinking fast and I don't want to go
Down, down, down, down below
And if my grip were a little bit stronger
Maybe then and only then I could stop this slide
Please try and wait a little bit longer
Well I've never found it easy to decide

You're irresistible, irresistible temptation
Something ancient from the other side
Unnatural selection

A perfect mouth slightly on the wild side
