"Driving all night"

Visit "Driving all night" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been driving all night, by myself
It almost seems that this song has wheels
and keeps me awake

I've been driving all night, by myself
It almost seems that this song has wheels
and keeps me awake

There's no turning back from here
A destiny for so many souls

I've been driving all night, by myself
It almost seems that this song has wheels
and keeps me awake

There's no turning back,
Her voice was sounding great
There's no turning back,
Her voice was soundingâ€¦it's the way back home
There's no turning back,
it's the way back home
