There must be some explanation
To all my frustrations
Inside my head.
I've always dreamt of what I could be
And I still dream...

I know I can't change my past,
It's time to move on, at last.

I've not always been as strong as I can,
But I know that I had my ups and downs...
I lost myself yesterday...
Time moves mountains... They say...

De do de do
I'm gonna change that tonight!
De do de do
I'm gonna feel alright!
De do de do
Just as long as the stars still shine...

I've tried to do my best all my life,
But time showed me it's not enough to try,
That no one can deny...
I'm gonna get it right this time!

De do de do
I'm gonna change that tonight!
De do de do
I'm gonna feel alright!
De do de do
Just as long,
As long,
As the stars still shine...

I've not always been as strong as I can...

De do de do...
