"Out tonight"

Today, I want to feel alive
I'll try not to hide
I'll try not to run.
Sometimes, I find myself looking
For something to believe,
Something to dream, can I?

I want to go out tonight,
Need to free my mind,
Want to be me, just me
Need to be free, just free
Tonight

Oh, time changed so many faces and places
I would like to go out and see what's breaking
You left your name and number on a wall,
At least you laughed the last time that you called

I want to go out tonight,

Need to free my mind,
Want to be me, just me

Need to be free, just free
Tonight

I want to say yea, yea, yeae
