We're dreaming of a better life,
While working twelve hours a day,
To pay our bills.

Some say it's a miserable world,
One day we might pay for the air that we breathe!

We still have something to love,
To achieve,
Something to believe.
We still have something to rely on,
I'm talking about... Us.

Every single night,
I watch you sleep
Just to feel your heartbeat.
You're all that I need...
You're all that I need...

We still have something to love,
To achieve,
Something to believe.
We still have something to rely on,
I'm talking about... Us.

Every beat of your heart
Tells me I'm not alone in the dark.
