(Mark Hollis)

Don't look back until you've tried

A line so openly a lie

'Outside of you, it's just tomorrow starting'

I've said I'm wrong when I've been right

I've seen times when I've been sure but still I find

I'm just the first that you take

Are there reasons everybody pays

They never seem to be any use

It's just tomorrow starting

Don't look back until you've tried

With time you'll endlessly arrive

Outside of use

With just tomorrow starting

See my eyes tell me I'm not lying

I'm just the first that you take

Are there reasons everybody pays

They never seem to be any use

It's just tomorrow started
