Autumn and Friday the winds blew

July , September , I knew you

And now I sit on the sand hill

I sing our song to the sea

August , October

Mid-April , November , May

Beckoning hands made you fly

I cry , it's curtains today

In August , October the grass grew

The sky was blue and I want you

Now as I look out my window

I see the world carry on

August , October

Mid-April , November , May

Beckoning hands made you fly

I cry , it's curtains today

August , October

Mid-April , November , May

Beckoning hands made you fly

I cry , it's curtains today

I cry , it's curtains today

I cry , it's curtains today
