Green fields where we used to wander

Purple valleys , near my home

We would play there , beneath the sky

And then I kissed you , butterfly

Young girl , you came restless

And you left me here to cry

My big teardrops, in red pastures

For I loved you , butterfly

Butterfly , yeah

I dream about you , lonely without you , butterfly

Butterfly , yeah

Each night I'm sleeping, your face goes creeping, butterfly

Green fields where we used to wander

Purple valleys, near my home

We would play there beneath the sky

And I kissed you , butterfly

Butterfly, yeah

I dream bout you , lonely without you , butterfly

Butterfly , yeah

Each night I'm sleeping, your face goes creeping,
