Fool in the night on the stair

With the light by the window

Out in the jungle of life she was

Yearning to go

All of the years I've been there for the tears

She will sell you

Out in the city she search for the face

That she knew

Did you believe that a love so alive

Could be over

(CHORUS)

Caroline

Fallen Angel

Caroline

Oh oh oh, oh oh oh

oh oh oh oh

Fallen Angel

I'm so lost

Tonight, lonely tonight

Lonely tonight

Fool is the father who clings to the Child he is losing

Mother too weary to question

The wisdom of youth

There with your head in your hand

As you pray to her picture

Out in the rain she would search

For somebody to hold

Did you believe you could find

What you need with a stranger

(CHORUS)

Did you believe that a love so alive

Could be over

(CHORUS)
