Now I like the way you move
Anyway that you make it work
And you offer something new
And the doorway is open for me
Now a man needs a woman
And I know that for me is true
And life , we got too much reality
There's gotta be other things to do
Me electrify you
Simply mystify you
Very strange but nice
Now somebody wrong
And somebody right
And somebody knows it's neither one thing or the other
It's a fine line between taking and giving
It's a fine line
It's fine line between dancing and making love
It's a fine line
I can see the possibility
Anyway that you wanna be
We all got secret emotions

Anytime after the midnight hour
Now love, don't get short on the action
Anyway you got the energy
My heart is a part of the plans you made
You're the star of my sexual fantasy
Me electrify you
Simply mystify you
Hope you stay all night
I'll have you for dinner or breakfast in bed
Either way I get you
For the worse or for the better
It's a fine line between taking and giving
It's a fine line
It's a fine line between dancing and making love
It's a fine line
It's wild , it's weird , it's what we think about
This ain't no strip club , shame on you 'cos
You know somebody that got a bead on what you need
Don't sacrifice your love
You analyze , don't minimize
What only you can rise above
Now, I know that , don't you think
I know your watching me
You got no claim to make
Well, that's no excuse

And know the truth

You got brain drain , long as there's a game to play

Sad, but there's only one fool to blame

It's a fine line between taking and giving

It's a fine line

It's a fine line between dancing and making love

It's a fine line

You don't think my love should tie you down

I say love can turn your groove around

Watch me please you

Watch me play your game

Someday love will make your water flow

It's a fine line , fine line (keep repeating
