Though I know it's time to take you home

Baby you and I are all alone

We should take a moment of our own

And look what we've got

You could destroy this heart of mine

I'm only trying to get by

Hiding in the shadows of the night

Holding you and knowing the wrong is right

Show me some mercy

You know what you're doin' is making me

A happy man

I shield you from the rain

I've been slow to get you but

I'm working

As hard as I can

(CHORUS)

This time, it's what we believe is true

And whether you believe I'm in love with you

I gotta be sure that you say what you mean

Is it only a dream to a teenage queen

And all the years of tears and laughter

We could go through
Will it be happy ever after
For me and you
Heaven is a place inside of me
Livin' with your heart as company
Only you can change the way I feel
And make it feel good
Where there is love there is no crime
I'm only tryin' to get mine
Let me be the one to dry your eyes
We can be the promise that never dies
Light of an angel
Blinded by the vision
I'm wishin' we could travel on
Stay with me baby
Any less than an hour
You be leavin' me lonely too long
(CHORUS)
(CHORUS)
This time, it's what we believe is true
And whether you believe I'm in love with you
I gotta be sure that you say what you mean
Is it only a dream to a teenage queen
And you define the dream you're after
Make it come true

Will it be happy ever after

Will it be happy ever after

For me and you
