Kathy's eyes were full of alibies , she always played around
Kathy said she needed life instead of a suburban town
And she didn't care when things were wrong or right Headin' out towards the city lights
Tellin' me that at last , she's alive , alive

Kathy's gone and I can't go on I been cryin' lonely nights
No one knows where the true love goes in the end Oh, oh , oh , Kathy she shot down my world ,that's no surprise

Oh, Kathy's dream to be a movie queen was her obsession
Sweet reviews inside the morning news was her reflection
And she ran away to find a fantasy
With the lovers and the limosines
Could it be that at last , she's alive , alive

Kathy's gone and I can't go on
I've been cryin' lonely nights
No one knows where the true love goes in the end
Oh, oh , oh , Kathy she shot down my world in a love affair no one can mend

(break)

Kathy's gone and I can't go on
I've been cryin' lonely nights
No one knows where the true love goes in the end
Oh, Kathy she shot down my world
in a love affair no one can mend
No one knows where the true love goes in the end (fade out)
