Here by my side
Are you close enough to take me to your paradise
Or am I going down to my loneliness
Could you be loving me more or less

Do you know
Are you ready for the feeling
Can you learn to grow
Out in a world of fears we , we're hanging on
We come together , we find , the sun

You all over me , all over
You're the light
I am the love don't let me die away
I am forever we are born to make
Promises to be there
Promises to be there

Life, where the few may not ever find a heaven
I could be with you
Out in a world where nights they don't ever end
We got each other my love , my life, my friend

You all over me , all over
You're the light
I am the love don't let me die away
I am forever we are born to make
Promises to love me
Promises to love me

Out in a world where nights they don't ever end
We got each other my love, my life, my friend

You all over me , all over
You're the light
I am the love don't let me die away
We are forever we are born to make
Promises to be there
Promises to be there

I am the love don't let me die away

I am forever we are born to make
Promises to be there
Promises to be there
