I think we finally reached as good as it gets
No other places, other guys all too bad
The final picture inside my head, was jaded
You faded
Cause things don't always go the way that you planned
You got a choice, whether to fall or to stand
To fight the love and to let go of your hand
And baby, I'm waiting

[Bridge]

If we know that there's just one try, let's get it right
And if it's too hard, we got the life
And say the 3 words, always that you laid

[Chorus]

We're hanging by a thread, I don't wanna look back and regret
Wishing there were things I would have said
As the heart battles the head, no
We don't wanna see it end
The thought of loosing you is sinking in
Try and just to... we don't get anywhere
So we're hanging by a thread
Sometimes it's harder just to quit
When we're hanging by a thread
We're just hanging by a thread

Now we could give it, yeah just try to give in I'm... off battle, doesn't mean I'ma win
That I'ma vision you, without a fight you Keep this stuff on, I'm dying

[Bridge]

If we know that there's just one try, let's get it right
And if it's too hard, we got the life
And say the 3 words, always that you laid

[Chorus]

We're hanging by a thread, I don't wanna look back
and regret

Wishing there were things I would have said
As the heart battles the head, no
We don't wanna see it end
The thought of loosing you is sinking in
Try and just to... we don't get anywhere
So we're hanging by a thread
Sometimes it's harder just to quit
When we're hanging by a thread
We're just hanging by a thread

It's like a board, and your heart's gotta battle your head
I know it's hard, but sometimes it's even harder to quit
It's like a board, and your heart's gotta battle your
Don't give in, cause sometimes it's even harder to quit

[Chorus]

We're hanging by a thread, I don't wanna look back
and regret
Wishing there were things I would have said
As the heart battles the head, no
We don't wanna see it end
The thought of loosing you is sinking in
Try and just to... we don't get anywhere
So we're hanging by a thread
Sometimes it's harder just to quit
When we're hanging by a thread
We're just hanging by a thread
