I was shipwrecked for a year
But somehow made it here alive
I was once a queen of hearts but I played out all my cards
All for the simple glory of Trusting in you, never, when I know better

How could I have been so blind
Yeah, I ran every light
Never saw the danger sign
I should have known better
Missed the writing on the wall
Never thought I would fall
Think I'm gonna lost my mind
I should have known better
Should have known better

You prepared a drunken feast
I was banished from your reach, out of your way
But I crawled down from the cross
When you last dropped me off
And I called on your party just to say

Forgive you never, cause I know better

How could I have been so blind
Yeah, I ran every light
Never saw the danger sign
I should have known better
Missed the writing on the wall
Never thought I would fall
Think I'm gonna lost my mind
I should have known better
Should have known better

I'm back on my feet, I'm finally free, and I won't be around
When your little kingdom comes crashing down

Missed the writing on the wall
Never thought I would fall
Think I'm gonna lost my mind

I should have known better
Should have known better

How could I have been so blind
Yeah, I ran every light
Never saw the danger sign
I should have known better

Missed the writing on the wall
Never thought I would fall
Think I'm gonna lost my mind
I should have known better
Should have known better

Should have known better
Should have known better
(Should have known better, Should have known better)
