Butterflies in the sky, saying hi
Take our time cause you never know
Summer breeze, on my knees, touching me
In the grass of the greenest grove
But your face has a tortuous gaze
Feel the chase, you don't know what you're in for Can't comprehend if you'll sink or your swim
With a saint or a sinner no

Everything about you
Shaking like loaded gun
Everything inside you
Just wants to give in
I could be a, I could be a,
I could be your lover or a best friend
Or make you kneel down and pray
Cuz I'm a contradiction, depending on the day
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a
Sinner or a saint
Sinner or a saint
Be what you love or what you hate
A sinner
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a

Make our ways through the town, makin' sounds, feel our mind and our senses go
Summer heat, in the streets, when we meet, on the edge losing all control
But your face
Has a tortuous gaze
Feel the chase, you don't know what you're in for
Like a kite to the wind
You give up and give in
And you let it go

Everything about you
Shaking like loaded gun
Everything inside you
Just wants to give in
I could be a, I could be a,
I could be your lover or a best friend
Or make you kneel down and pray

Cuz I'm a contradiction, depending on the day
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a
Sinner or a saint
Sinner or a saint
Be what you love or what you hate
A sinner
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a

Be still my beating heart
Oh, look this mess I've started
I can't decide which side of myself to give to you
Before the lies become the truth

Everything about you
Shaking like loaded gun
Everything inside you
Just wants to give in
I could be a, I could be a,
I could be your lover or a best friend
Or make you kneel down and pray
Cuz I'm a contradiction, depending on the day
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a
Sinner or a saint
Sinner or a saint
Be what you love or what you hate
A sinner
I could be a, I could be a, I could be a
