There are times when you feel lonely
There are times when you feel strong
There'll be moments when you don't know
What is right and what is wrong

Now it's time to take your chance
Never lose your own defence
Don't look back, go straight ahead
Never stop to reach the sky

Spread your wings and fly away
Leave your dreams and make your way
Spread your wings and fly away
Don't stop it's not too late

Spread your wings and fly away
Leave your dreams and make your way
Spread your wings and fly away
Don't stop it's not too late

There are times when you feel helpless
There are moments filled with fears
Don't give up if you should feel like
You're drowning in your tears

Never change the way you are
On your way you will get far
Don't look back go straight ahead
Never stop to reach the sky

Spread your wings and fly away
Leave your dreams and make your way
Spread your wings and fly away
Don't stop it's not too late

Spread your wings and fly away
Leave your dreams and make your way
Spread your wings and fly away
Don't stop it's not too late
