[Intro: Snoop + The Bee Gees]

Another dirty 9 inch dick classic, yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah..
Girrrrl.... As I sit here sit here thinkin' to myself
There is no one for you but me and I mean that
And I've think about all the things we been through Like all gettin' fightin' for example
You know the love we have for each other
It tense that our way what we would do to one another
You know my grand daddy used to always say it
You know he used to say it like this..

[Hook: Snoop + The Bee Gees 3X]

There would be ups and downs, smiles and frowns
Share with me fairy tales I make believe

[Verse 1: Snoop]

Word up motherfuckers, this is Snoop Dogg
I'm tryin' to figure out how the fuck I'ma do y'all Hangin' with my homie from the turf that's young cute ball
Givin' me the words on the streets here to scoop y'all
The niggaz from the East Side is split up (split up)
And one of 'em try to fuck your shit up (what?)
Nah cuz, don't believe that - that's my nigga for life
I'm out with the bullshit, I mean with the real shit
I'm at the church doing work spit gave for poor pit
And that's the bidness and God is my witness
LBC, 213, hell yeah we in this - It's so relentless
And all my dogs up against the life sentence
I love y'all like I love no bitch and that's real shit
On some Cript shit - homie dig this

[Hook 2X]

[Verse 2: Snoop]

I used to have a lot of broads that I don't fool with I used to have a lot of homeboys I ain't cool with A lot of people that nigga went to school with Happy as hell to see the big dog doin' it
But would none of them believe it though (What?)

That I would be bigger than Curtis Blow
I guess he was right these are the breaks
Despite my mistakes and eggs I'm getting cake
To realize your fate threw fate
Cause we all gonna get that day (For what?)
To see if our lives was straight
And see if we would be able to walk through the pearly gates (Yeah?)
To see the man upstairs on some real talk homie
I'm tired of bein' stuck here
If I could I would fly to moon (zoom)
Y'all probably think I'm trippin' off these mushrooms
I know

[Hook 4X]

[Outro: Snoop]
Now, as I think back to the words my grand daddy used to say
I've never seen him in church, but he always had the word
He always would tell me; "sometimes you gotta take the good with the bad"
"You gotta to do bad in other to do good"
