I called you weightless
I called you faceless
I named you every single day - anyway
You are a flower
By every hour
Your eyes descend into my soul - but I am cold

I was afraid but now I'm flying
I was consumed and in denial
My conscience seems to make me hard and cold
All seems gone with the queen of rocknroll

Chorus

You are a fire
Our hearts desire
We can't deny her
Every hour, every day
So don't fade away
You are so prior
We all live by her
We can't deny her
Loving every fucking day

Vers 2

We're all combined into faith
We're all divided for life
She holds the answer for grace
So it's just hard to deny

Every now and then we try to stay alive
Every now and then we die to survive
My conscience seems to make me hard and old
All seems gone with the queen of rocknroll

Chorus
