

Faceless, The "Hypocrisy"

Visit "Hypocrisy" on MotoLyrics.com

On the helm of a false entity
The faithful standing firmly Betrayal of the worthy patrons of Demoralization disregarding justice
Corrupting minds of the innocent
Society bows to the throne
Unaware of what the siren beholds
Fools suffer
Horizons of chaos
The solstice of annihilation
The break of daylight is their last for all eternity
A scared blood will spill
She'll bask in their ashes
A sacred blood will spill
She'll bask in their scorching ashes
Bow down to your God, reaper of your soul
Look into her eyes, see the white light hand upon his head, look up at your queen Never again
Try and take her throne
Now she'll take your life
